

1st Annual Tri-County SPEAKS Sexual Assault Center Survivor Art Exhibit Art Parameters

2023 Theme: What Does Healing Look Like?

Event is Sunday, April 30th, 2023, from 1:00pm to 5:00pm, Hampton Park
Set-up from 12:00pm-1:00pm, take down 5:00pm-6:00pm

Art Entry Parameters

Must be an adult age 18 and above. Must be a survivor of sexual assault/sexual violence or adult survivor of child sexual abuse. The art must adhere to the mediums listed below. Artwork is encouraged to respectfully encompass the diversity and sensitivity of victims and survivors.

Note: Separate events for poetry readings, letter readings, and brief journal writings will be held at venues throughout the month of April. Please refer to our calendar at www.tricountyspeaks.org for those dates.

Entry Process

Art Submission/Proposal Form due before April 1st, 2023, at 5:00pm. You can register online or download a copy, complete, and email to lyn@tricountyspeaks.org. You can also use this email to request an Art Submission/Proposal form be emailed to you. You can choose to submit art as anonymous, please refer to Submission/Proposal Form. If you have further questions, contact via the email address above or call 854-500-1227.

Mediums

Painting, Drawing/Sketch (pencils, charcoal, chalk, etc.), mixed media such as collages and other, found objects (tires, recyclables, stones, etc.), photography, sculpture (clay, ceramic, etc.), wood, photography, crocheting, sewing, stain glass.

Art Exhibit Example

Flowers

Artist: Anonymous

My journey to heal and love flowers again placing the gifting, sharing, and my acceptance of flowers in its proper context has spanned over 34 years after my sexual assault. I have learned to love flowers again. I hope through my photography, you will let me share flowers with you and you will accept them with love from me, survivor to survivor.